

Butterwick Hospice urges firms to keep giving

The Butterwick hospice is urging businesses to dig deep into their pockets during the credit crunch. Butterwick hospice, in Stockton, is asking for companies to maintain their charity donations. This year, the Butterwick is more focused than ever on raising funds as they try to collect £780,000 for a complementary therapies centre in Stockton. Here you will find on behalf of K Home International Peter Kay along with 9 other sponsorship who are still continuing to support the Butterwick

